REFEREE CODE OF ETHICS

Game officials having certain privileges through and by the Ghana Football Association, with respect to the game shall realize their responsibilities and duties to the Association and the game.

A GFA Registered and Licensed Referee shall:

- A) Conduct himself/herself with dignity both on and off the field of play and shall, by example, seek to inspire the principles of fair play and earn the respect of those the referee serves.
- B) Not cause the Ghana Football Association or any Regional Football Association to become involved in any controversial matters and shall abide by the rules and regulations of the Association.
- C) Adhere to all standards and directives established by FIFA, CAF and the GFA and abstain from receiving gifts and other considerations from participants of the game (ZERO TOLERANCE FOR CORRUPTION). Report all cases of match fixing and match manipulation immediately it comes to your knowledge to the GFA.
- D) Always be neat in appearance and maintain a high level of physical and mental fitness.
- E) Study the Laws of the Game and be aware of all changes and shall enforce all said Laws and Changes.
- F) Perform his/her designated duties, including attending organized seminars and lectures, etc. and shall assist their colleagues in upgrading and improving their standards of officiating, instructing, and assessing.
- G) Adhere to the Association's Anti-Doping Policy.
- H) Honour any appointments made for and accepted by them unless unable to do so by virtue of illness or personal emergency.
- I) Not publicly criticize or disparage other referees, the Association, a body of the GFA or its officials and Team Officials.
- J) Not make any statement to the media (newspaper, television, radio, etc.) related to a game in which the referee has officiated, or to the performance of the players or other officials.
- K) Not accept an appointment to officiate in any game involving a team or club to whom the referee is directly affiliated as a player, a registered coach or manager, and elected executive or board member.
- L) Not accept any appointment to officiate in any competitive game in which an immediate member of his/her family by marriage or common law is a registered player or coach. An immediate member of the family is a parent, a spouse, a son or daughter, a brother or sister.
- M) Be subject to disciplinary action for not complying with this Code of Ethics and the Provisions of the Statutes and Regulations of FIFA, CAF and the GFA.

I understand that if proven, any false declarations on this form may result in sanctions as determined in accordance with the relevant Statutes and Regulations of FIFA, CAF and the GFA.
